'TWAS HANGMAN'S DAY.

Two Murderers Hung at Philadelphia and a Third Suffers Death at Bellfonte, Pa.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—The condemned murderers, Jacob S. Schoop and Thomas J. Cole were executed in prison this morning in the presence of the properly accredited persons permitted to witness the last dread chapter in the history of the two terrible crimes.

At 9:30 o'clock, the officials and others appointed to witness the execution assembled at the prison. Shortly before 10 o'clock, Sheriff Krumbhaar left the assistant superintendent's room and walked with Mr. Richardson slowly down the corridor towards the scaffold, the others following in double ranks. As the head of the line reached Cole's cell they halted, the door creaked on its hinges, and the murderer emerged for his last walk, accompanied by his spiritual advisor, Father Marterson.

Schoop spent the night uncomplainingly; he slept calmly and peacefully for six hours, and when he awoke he listened earnestly to the words of comfort that came from the devout lips of Mr. Schroeder, his spiritual adviser. He read a religious book at intervals and ate frequently and with evident relish. He was very calm, but his apathy seemed to take the form of a trance, or as if he were under the influence of opium.

Cole spent most of his time in prayer. At 8 o'clock, this morning, he took the sacrament, and afterwards meditated with the priest who has so assidiously attended him through the dread ordeal. His brothers, Frank and James, came to the prison early in the morning, and an effecting farewell was the result. This trying moment was the turning point as to whether his weak condition would cause him to make a scene. He broke down and cried bitterly for a few minutes, and then quickly recovered his firmness, continuing calm and apparently cool until he died.

Cole walked slowly but firmly. His eyes were fixed on the ground and he appeared in a dazed condition. The Rev. Father held the Crucifix in front of the murderer's face, and now and then he mumbled inaudibly. A few steps further and another halt was made. This time the door creaked loudly and wierdly in the death-like stillness and Schoop issued forth. The wretched man paused for a second and looked first at the prison officials in the rear and then at his brother murderer, Rev. Otto Schroeder was at his elbow and the reverend gentlemen with Schoop took their positions and walked slowly after Cole and his spiritual advisor.

Again the procession was set in motion, the rear being brought up by the deputy sheriffs and the prison keepers. When the scaffold was reached the black caps were placed over the men's faces and the ropes adjusted. A moment later, at 10:04, the trap was sprung and both men dropped, having a fall of about six feet.

After hanging twenty minutes the bodies were out down. Prison Physician Scharp pronounced life extinct and the sheriff's jury viewed the bodies and the usual formal verdict was rendered. Cole's body was handed over to his brothers and Schoop's will be buried in the Potter's field, as his relatives and friends had all deserted him, and he was absolutely alone in the world.

The murder for which Thomas Cole suffered the death penalty was one of the most brutal in the annals of crime. On the morning of July 5, 1888, Walter McAllister, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was found murdered in bed at his boarding house. He had returned from his work and had just gone to bed, when his bed-fellow, Thomas Cole, entered the room and without any warning whatever, severed his head from his body with an ax. Cole then left the house and escaped, but was afterwards captured.

The only defense the prisoner made was that he had quarrelled with McAllister about the breaking of a hat and over a young lady from West Philadelphia; but the young lady could never be found. Cole was of an envious, vindictive disposition and, in fact, committed his awful crime on no pretext whatever.

The crime for which Jacob Schoop was executed to-day was the horrible butchery of Anton Schilling. The remains of Schilling, who was formerly Schoop's partner in a little grocery shop, were found by four boys in Fairmount park in the water pipes, on December 26th, 1888. After an investigation Schoop was arrested and finally confessed that he had murdered him to get possession of the little money he was supposed to have. They quarreled, when Schoop knocked Schilling down and then grabbing a knife, stabbed him until he was dead. He then cut the body up and placed it in sacks, which he afterwards carted to the park and placed it in the water pipes.

HOPKINS EXECUTED.

BELLEFONT, Pa., Feb. 20.—Hopkins rose about 6 o'clock and ate a hearty breakfast and spent several hours with his spiritual advisors in prayer. At 10 o'clock the walk to the gallows was begun. There the ministers again knelt in prayer. Hopkins bade farewell to his friends and said, "I leave this world without an enemy. Farewell all." After shaking hands with those on the scaffold and thanking the sheriff for his kind treatment, Hopkins stepped under the noose which was quickly adjusted and black cap was drawn and at 10:15 the trap was sprung. The rope broke and the man fell to the floor. He was picked up and carried to the scaffold, when the rope was again adjusted and the trap again sprung at 10:18. Hopkins was dead at 10:33 and the body was cut down shortly afterward.

The crime for which Wm. S. Hopkins paid the penalty to-day at Bellfonte, was the killing of his wife and her mother, Mrs. Wigaman, on Sunday, September 22, 1889.

Persons living in the vicinity of the Wigaman house, heard four shots fired in rapid succession, and soon after Hopkins emerged from the house and ran across the street to a livery stable. He held a revolver in his hand, and, on reaching the stable, fired two shots at his own head. The first shot missed entirely, and the second only lodged against the skull bone. Hopkins was taken in charge and confessed that he had killed his wife, Maggie, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Wigaman, and gave as a reason for doing so that he loved his wife to distraction and could not live without her, and as people were trying to part them he thought he would settle the difficulty by killing them and then himself.

MARQUETTE, Mich., Feb. 20.—John McDonald was convicted of the murder of Mollie Beveridge yesterday and at once sentenced for life. He displayed no emotion. His crime was the attempted killing of five persons near Matchwood, Ontonagon county, in December last. Mrs. Beveridge was killed, Mrs. Redpatch badly wounded, and Dunk Beveridge slightly hurt.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—The may J. B. Kelly, arrested in St. Louis on suspicion of having been connected with the Cronin murder, was released from custo-day. Messrs. Hatfield and Throckmorton could not identify him as the man "J. B. Simonds."

Can Do Business.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 20.—The attorney general rendered his decision in the case of the recommendations of Bank Examiner Kenyon as to whether or not the American Building and Loan association should be permitted to continue doing business. He decides that it can. This establishes the association as being clearly on its feet, and there are no grounds for the claims of extravagance.

THE BIG FOUR GOBBLES

Up the Whitewater Railroad Which Has Heretofore Been Operated By the Muncie.

The Whitewater railroad, which has heretofore been operated by the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville railroad, whose main offices are in this city, has been gobbled up by the Big Four company, as will be seen by the following, which is taken from to-day's Cincinnati Enquirer:

"The Big Four people have taken another line into camp. This time it is the Whitewater road, which extends from Harrison, Ohio, to Hagerstown, Ind., a distance of sixty-five miles.

"It was learned last night that the Big Four had secured control of this piece of property, either by purchase of the majority of the capital stock or otherwise.

"President Ingalls, who arrived home yesterday after an inspection trip over the Chesapeake and Ohio, retired early last evening and could not be seen, consequently no particulars of the deal could be obtained. That the Big Four has secured the property is, however, a certainty.

"The Whitewater has been operated in connection with the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville, of which George W. Saul, formerly of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton, is general manager.

"The acquisition of the Whitewater gives the Big Four people a line to Connersville, Ind., a Cincinnati, Hamilton and Indianapolis town, and to other good territory, and, in connection with the Cincinnati, Fort Wayne and Louisville, a good line between Cincinnati and Muncie and Fort Wayne, Ind.

"Another thing is that Mackey, who has been buying a good many roads recently, has been dickering for the Whitewater with the idea of extending it to Cincinnati and using in connection with the line he is building from Richmond, Ind. Mackey is now, however, cut off so far as the Whitewater is concerned."

WASHINGTON.

The World's Fair Bills Being Discussed in Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The two bills providing for the holding of a world's fair were called up in the house to-day by special order. Mr. Candler, of Masschusetts, the chairman of the fair committee, announced that the committee had agreed to allot two hours to the representatives of each city represented for discussion, with two hours for the opposition to present its views, and one hour for a general presentation of the case.

The discussion was to begin to-day, with the general presentation, and the representatives of the four cities and the opposition were to have been allowed an hour each. Tomorrow, he explained, the opposition would begin the discussion, and the representatives of sites follow, each being allowed the remaining hour. Mr. Mills, of Texas, opposed this, contending that the opposition should be allowed half the time of the discussion.

Mr. Kilgore, of Texas, raised the question of consideration but was voted down and Mr. Candler finally succeeded in beginning his opening speech. He outlined the reasons and the necessities for holding a world's fair and was followed by Mr. Flower, who presented arguments in favor of making New York the place. He was followed by Messrs. Moore, of New Hampshire, and Covert, of New York, who also presented New York's claims.

Cummings, Tracy and Quinn all spoke in favor of the selection of New York as the site. The argument for Chicago was opened by Mr. Heit.

The senate laid aside the educational bill to-day to discuss Senator Chandler's resolution calling for information in regard to the Florida association. The debate was of an inflammable character. Mr. Call and Mr. Pasco making attacks upon the character of the dead man, Saunder, and Mr. Chandler attacking the Florida senators for "defaming the dead." After an extended debate the resolution was agreed to and the senate resumed consideration of the educational bill. Mr. Blair having the floor.

DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION.

It was plainly apparent soon after the house met to-day that there was a fixed intention on the part of a number of southern democrats to oppose the world's fair project because of the government appropriation of $15,000,000 provided for in the general bills.

After some routine business had been disposed of the speaker announced that the consideration of the World's Fair bill was the regular order and recognized Mr. Candler, of Mississippi, the chairman of the committee in charge of the matter, who made a statement concerning the allotment of time for discussion by the committee.

After considerable discussion Mr. Candler finally succeeded in beginning his speech on the general features of the project, outlining reasons why a fair should be held.

LA GRIPPE'S TERRORS.

Deaths Occur So Rapidly That the Supply of Coffins Has Been Exhausted

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 20.—Private letters received here from the City of Mexico state that the grip has been more widespread and persistent in its ravages there than anywhere else on the American continent. The writers are American residents of the Mexican capital, and have no motive to conceal the truth. A letter dated the 14th inst. and received here yesterday says:

The progress of the influenza here and its results have been truly terrific. The disease reached us in the middle of January and has grown steadily worse, until it is now at its height. The number of acute pneumonia is absolutely wonderful. It has been the rule rather than the exception, and no precaution seems to be able to prevail against it. This has been especially the case among the poorer classes, who live generally in houses which afford no protection against disease. There have absolutely died like sometimes twenty-five a day. Just now the supply of coffins has been exhausted and many bodies have been buried without.

VILLAGE DESTROYED.

Aquora, Iowa, Wiped Out by the Fire Fiend.

INDEPENDENCE, Iowa, Feb. 20.—The village of Aquora, ten miles northeast of here was almost entirely wiped out by fire Monday night. The postoffice, five stores, a blacksmith shop, a butcher shop, and numerous dwellings were consumed. The loss is not estimated. The insurance is light.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 20.—St. John's Roman Catholic church in Greenbush, across the river from this city, was destroyed by fire between 9:30 and 10:30 this morning. Loss, $35,000.

UTICA, N. Y., Feb. 20.—At the town of Black River, six miles from Watertown, early this morning, fire destroyed the hotel, two business blocks, and a number of dwellings. Loss estimated, $40,000; insurance, unknown.

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 20.—The produce commission store of S. G. Crooker, on Sixth street, was burned out this morning. Loss, $15,000; partly insured.

DEAD EDITORS.

Two Newspaper Men are Stricken With Death.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Feb. 20.—W. H. D. Bliss, one of the proprietors of the Sioux Falls Daily Press, died at his residence on Second avenue yesterday. The deceased was one of the most widely known men throughout this state, having been intimately connected with the affairs of the commonwealth and the territory.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 20.—Berry R. Sulgrove, the well known journalist of this city is dying of pneumonia. He has been continuously in the profession in this city since 1850, for many years being managing editor of the Journal, but for the past fifteen years upon the staff of the News.

LATER.—Mr. Sulgrore died at seven o'clock this morning.

Ex-Governor Foraker.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 20.—In a published interview, ex-Governor Foraker denies that he said, in his recent speech, that the call for information in regard to militia in 1887 had any reference to positive trouble with Canada.

Blood Arrested.

MIDDLEBORO, Mass., Feb. 20.—Dr. Blood, charged with being implicated in the murder of Hiram Sawtelle, was arrested here to-day, and taken to Boston.

THE PARSON ATE THE APPLE.

Our thanks are hereby tendered to Miss Hattie Triplett for a big red apple. The parson ate the apple, and he stated that this is not the first instance in history where a woman gave a big red apple to a man, that very direful results ensued in the first instance, and he admonished us, therefore, to try harder than ever to become a better man, and, by jiminy, you can bet your best boots that we will try, though it is hard to find a better man than we are. To encourage us we will continue to hope that we may some day receive another big red apple from a fair and shapely hand.—Kent (Wash.) Advertiser.

SAFE BLOWERS!

Last night the safe in the offices of the Standard Oil company, west of the city, was blown and a small amount of money taken.

This is the second time within two months that a safe-blowing has been committed in these offices. The robbery of two months ago was not severe for such a corporation, the sum of money being only in the neighborhood of $100, but the safe had to be replaced, and Manager Gilbert recently bought one that was claimed to be "burglar-proof and fire-proof."

This large and handsome safe was ruined completely by the professionals, who performed their wicked work so well last night.

They went at it in a very systematic manner. First procuring tools from the Nickel Plate store house, a short distance away, they knocked off the combination dial. An aperture was made in which to pour the powder, and this done they applied the fuse.

The force of the explosion must have been terrific. Both doors were blown completely off, while huge seams appear here and there, making the safe a complete wreck.

A door between the office and the warehouse was shattered.

The amount of money taken was a little over $17. A $5 bill was not discovered. No papers were disturbed.

Sheriff Viberg visited the scene this morning.

The safe blowing was plainly the work of professionals. They left behind them a flask of powder and two copies of the Detroit Free Press, either of which would make a mighty poor clew to run down such criminals.

Manager Gilbert will buy another safe and will perhaps employ a watchman at the oil works.

THE BIG SHOOT.

George C. Beck, of Indianapolis, Wins the Championship of America.

Yesterday afternoon, at Lafayette, the bird shooting contest between Fred Erb, of that city, and George C. Beck, of Indianapolis, resulted in a victory for Beck, giving him the championship of America. Hon. Bruce Carr and a large number from Indianapolis, and also a number of enthusiasts of this city, attended the big sporting event.

The match began at 1:45 o'clock, sharp, and was attended by fully 400 people. The shoot was at fifty live pigeons each, and the score resulted: Erb, 45; Beck, 49, giving to the latter the American championship cup. Erb missed his first bird in his third shoot, his second in the twenty-ninth, third in the thirty-seventh, fourth in the fortieth and fifth in the forty-seventh. Beck shot straight until he reached his forty-seventh bird, and after that until the match was completed. There was some complaint that the birds were soft. The traps were set at a distance of thirty feet.

Mr. Beck's shooting was remarkable and if he keeps it up at the rate of yesterday afternoon he will probably hold the cup for the allotted two years and become its actual owner. In the shoot both Mr. Beck and Mr. Erb used a Parker twelve guage Hammerless gun weighing seven pounds and six ounces.

The prize for which the contest was waged, is the magnificent silver cup valued at $400 and offered by Dr. R. B. Roe, editor of the American Field, Chicago, for the champion wing shot of the United States. The winner must retain it two years against all comers, and accept a challenge not less than once every three months if tendered.

A DISPATCH from Berlin states that in the stomach of a shark, which was recently dissected in that city, were found a dolphin weighing 120 pounds, forty-three fish, a decomposed seal, a human arm, and four human legs. With what earnestness that shark must have been accustomed to put up the petition: May good digestion wait upon appetite. Reading between the lines of the dispatch, we seem to gather that it was dyspepsia that carried him off.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS.

An Entertainment Which is Soon to be Given in this City.

The auditorium of the elegant new Second Presbyterian church will be opened to the public on Tuesday evening, March 4, with a grand concert and organ recital which will, no doubt, be one of the best musical entertainments ever given in this city.

On that occasion the new $2,000 organ, manufactured by the Carl Barckhoff Organ company, of Salem, Ohio, for permanent use in the church, will have been placed, and will be operated by skillful hands.

The following brilliant list of musicians have been secured for the occasion:

Harrison Wild, organist, Chicago.
Chas. A. Knorr, tenor, Chicago.
Miss Helen Carter, contralto, Chicago.
Miss Clara Kenower, soprano, Huntington.
Miss Jennie Ninde, piano solo, city.
Mr. W. S. Bash, baritone solo, city.
Mrs. Chas. H. McCulloch and Mr. John Mohr, piano duet.

Mr. Wild, the organist on the occasion, is the organist of the Unity church at Chicago, and is said to be one of the finest concert players in the west.

Mr. Knorr also resides at Chicago. He is a magnificent tenor of acknowled ability, and will charm his hearers. He is constantly filling engagements in the leading cities, being at New Orleans this week.

The balance of the participants in the evening's program are so well known that it is unnecessary for us to speak of their musical abilities.

THE NEW STAMPS.

Postmaster Higgins Will Place Them on Sale Saturday.

As has been related by the dispatches in the public press the post office department has recently been engaged in the preparation of a new series of the ordinary postage stamps to replace the series at present in use.

The new stamps (except those of the four and five-cent denominations) are now ready for issue and the department have determined to place them on sale simultaneously at all the postoffices in the larger cities.

The time fixed for commencing the sale of the new stamps is Saturday morning, Feb. 22. The postmaster here received notice this morning that a supply would reach the Fort Wayne postoffice in time to open the sale simultaneously with all the other offices of the first-class, therefore the new stamps can be purchased at the stamp widow after 7:30 a. m. on Washington's birthday.

NEW BRIDGES.

The County Will Expend $30,000 for New Structures.

The county commissioners were in session yesterday and to-day.

They have considered considerable business, the most important of which was passing upon the erection of numerous new bridges throughout the county. The following have so far been decided upon:

Two in Monroe township, east and west of Monroeville.

Three in Springfield township, one of which will be a 140 foot span over the St. Joe river.

Two in Washington township, two in Aboite, one in Lafayette, two in Perry, one in Milan, one in Cedar Creek, one in Pleasant.

The bridges will all be of iron, the foundations to be iron or stone. Bids will be advertised for in March.

The expense of building these bridges will be about $30,000.

WHERE IS HEBERT?

He Leaves Town Suddenly and His Doors are Closed.

Ed Hebert, who has been conducting a saloon on Calhoun street near the depot, has left town and the saloon is closed. He carried the keys with him and Mr. Centlivre, the brewer, who owns the place, was unable to effect an entrance to the place to-day.

It is said that Hebert left for Chicago last night. His wife, who was Miss Leichner, does not explain her husband's strange conduct, even if she knows.

His barkeeper is also unable to account for the man's action, unless it is because he is in debt.

The neighboring storekeepers say that Hebert has been in the habit of borrowing money of them at different times.

NEW SOUTH WALES and Queensland have erected 887 miles of rabbit-proof fences.

THE eight hour law, enacted by the last democratic Indiana state legislature has been pronounced constitutional by Attorney General Michener. The law, he says, in no way limits the contracting powers of the citizens of the state, and, besides, the power to enact such a law is embraced in the authority to exercise power to secure the convenience, comfort and prosperity of the public.

QUITE an excitement was occasioned Monday evening at Crawfordsville by the continued ringing of the bell of Wabash College, which was taken as an alarm of fire. The fire bell sounded and the firemen rushed to the college, only to find that their services were not needed, and that all the commotion was caused by the members of the freshmen and sophomore classes having a fight in the belfry.

THE supreme court of Indiana has just rendered the following decision: "When a suit is to foreclose a mortgage for purchase money not executed by the wife of the mortgagor she occupies the same relation to the mortgage, in so far as the mortgagee or those claiming under him are concerned, as she does in case of a mortgage securing a debt other than purchase money which she had signed, and the lien is not barred until twenty years have elapsed from the time the cause of action has occurred."

THE LENTEN PERIOD.

Lent began yesterday. In a city like this the term means very much and very little. The religious devotee has watched its approach with interest; thousands will pass through the shadow of its forty days and, like a stranger riding through a cross-roads village, never know it.

And even the majority of those who accept the voluntary asceticism, renouncing pleasure and fashion, do not know from whence the custom came. It is not generally known that Lent was once but a fast of forty hours—though the fact is disputed—and was intended to commemorate the intervening time between Christ's passion and the resurrection. Then, it is stated, the time was extended by slow degrees to forty days, and was taken to commemorate the forty days that Christ fasted in the desert.

Tertullian, in the third century, speaks of the Catholics as observing only the two days on which the bridegroom was taken from them. The learned are divided on the point, but certainly there is a doubt. Be it as it may, however, it is certain that different churches had power to appoint days of fasting as they pleased, and that they gradually prefixed extra days to the original fast until the lenten period is now of greater length than was at one time commemorated in the Roman church.

During these forty days marriages are not consummated by devout catholics and episcopalians, and the consequence is that after lent the county clerk usually notes an unusually lively demand for marriage licenses. Festive events generally are discouraged, and among the members of the churches named there is a tendency to plainer clothing among the ladies, little theater-going and no dancing. Holy week, the last week of lent, is one of peculiar solemnity, and the three last days are of almost continuous devotion.

A recent writer says: "The chief suggestion of the Lenten season to those who do not keep it, is the prominence it gives to the disciplinary element of religious life. That is its idea; it stands for repression and self-denial. Lent is an institution of society as well as of the church. It is not possible for the church to overcome the world simply through its activity and benevolence. Luxury will gain upon charity. The sphere of self-indulgence will widen beyond that of service."

As regards abstinence from food there seems to have always been as much variety as now. Pilkington, who, in spite of his name, came to be bishop of Durham in 1563, uses language respecting the diversity of foods, as follows: "Fastings were more varied than I know. Some used St Rinan's, some the Golden Fridays, some every Wednesday, some half of Lent, some whole, some with fish only, others as they lust. What reason is it that they which fasted Our Lady's fast, some fasting to bread and water, ended it in three days' space, or in eating fish had seven."

FOOD ADULTERATION.

The senate committee on agriculture has reported a substitute for the bill introduced by Senator Faulkner, "for the establishment of a pure food division in the department of agriculture, to provide for the inspection of live stock about to be slaughtered at slaughter-houses, canning, salting, pickling and rendering establishments, the carcasses or products of which are intended for human consumption in any state or territory other than where slaughtered, or for exportation to foreign countries; to prohibit the introduction of adulterated or misbranded foods or drugs into any state, or territory, or District of Columbia from any state, or territory, or foreign country."

The bill as amended provides that the secretary of agriculture shall organize in the department a division to be known as the Food division, and shall appoint a chief at a salary of $3,000 a year, to procure and analyze samples of food and drugs sold in any state other than where it is manufactured. All manufacturers of goods intended for shipment from one state to another shall make application for a license to the secretary of agriculture, certifying that the articles are not deleterious. The bill strikes out the second, third and fourth sections of the original bill relative to the slaughter of animals, and, with the exceptions noted, is the same as the old bill. It was recommitted to the committee on agriculture.

BECAUSE HE WAS A JEW.

The Champion Figure Skater Denied the First Prize at St. Petersburg.

Louis Rubenstien, the champion figure skater of the world, who resides at Montreal, Canada, and who, as noted in THE SENTINEL the other day, has relatives residing in this city, will not receive the first prize after all, although he won it fairly and defeated all other competitors in the world's championship contest at St. Petersburg last week. A telegram received yesterday from Russia says: "Rubenstein, though defeating all the others, will not be allowed first money."

This result is due to Rubenstein being a Jew. In a letter to his family at Montreal before the contest came off, he expressed his fears that his religion would interfere with his gaining the prize. Baron Wolffe of the St. Petersburg amateur club, who is of Jewish origin, interested himself in Rubenstein's behalf to prevent many petty annoyances devised to keep Rubenstein uncomfortable and which were too small to bring to the ambassador's notice, but the baron was told to attend to his own business and treat Rubenstein no better than the other competitors. The matter has been brought to the attention of the cabinet at Ottawa, Ont., and Sir John McDonald says the affair will be looked into.

To the Tariff Reformers of Indiana.

The executive committee of the Indiana Tariff Reform League, have completed the arrangements for the annual meeting on March 4 and 5. A mass meeting will be held in Masonic hall, Indianapolis, on the evening of Tuesday, March 4. This meeting will be addressed by Hon. Boyd Winchester, of Louisville; Hon. Thos. G. Shearman, of New York, and Hon. C. S. Darrow, of Chicago. Hon. J. Proctor Knott, of Kentucky, and Franklin McVeagh, of Chicago, will also probably be present.

On Wednesday, March 5, the business meeting of the league will be held. The committee is anxious to have every county in the state represented at that meeting.

Replies received to a circular letter sent out by the committee, indicate a growing interest in this movement, and a large and enthusiastic meeting. Reduced rates have been granted from all points in Indiana, to persons attending the convention. In purchasing tickets to Indianapolis, be careful to get the certificate from the agent at the starting point, which guarantees the return fare. Without this certificate, full fare will be charged both ways. Any further information will be furnished upon application to the corresponding secretary.

A MYSTERIOUS MAN.

The Man Who Dogged Jennie Cramer's Footsteps May Go To the Penitentiary.

A few nights ago a man dogged the footsteps of Miss Jennie Cramer on the streets and followed her to her home. He was jailed under the genuine or assumed name of Joseph Black and is serving a light sentence on the charge of intoxication.

Miss Cramer has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. August Baals, at 94 West Main street, and here it was that Black followed her. He demanded admittance to the house, which was refused him, but he accomplished an entrance by breaking in a window.

It was then that Officer Kennelly, who had been summoned during the excitement, appeared and placed the intruder under arrest.

Black, when arraigned before the mayor, said that he thought Miss Cramer was his wife, Emma, for whom he has been searching in this city. He said he did not remember anything about breaking into the house. Miss Cramer says she never met the man in her life before and he acts altogether too queerly to suit her. She has avowed her intention of conferring with Prosecutor Robinson in the matter.

Black is a young man of 22 years and of a careless disposition. In an interview he proved to be non-communicative; but from what a SENTINEL reporter learned he came from Altoona, Pa., and has worked in this city for some little time. He was for a period employed in the Wabash yards.

He stated that he was not aware of the act he was arrested for. He claimed to be too drunk to know anything.

He also claimed to be hunting for his wife, who he knew had been working on Baker street. Later he understood she went to the Ervin house on Harrison street.

Chief of Police Wilkinson made some inquiry at the Ervin house and elsewhere. He found that at the hotel in question the woman had not been employed to the knowledge of any of those at present about the place. He later located the woman at a home in Bloomingdale where she is acting as domestic.

She related a pitiful story. It is not her desire to meet her husband. She disclaims him on the ground of his worthlessness and is making her own living. She does not want the man to know of her whereabouts.

The most sensational part of the whole story is that it has been asserted that Black is wanted in Altoona for burglary. Chief Wilkinson has telegraphed to that place to seek the truth.

A SPLENDID ATTRACTION.

The Charles F. Higgins Concert Company at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, Next Monday.

It is not often that an opportunity is presented to the people of our city to hear a concert of such high character as that to be given here on the evening of the 24th instant. The Boston Symphony orchestra, for some mysterious reason, canceled their engagement, but the Charles F. Higgins Concert company, of New York, will be here sure. Mr. Charles F. Higgins, for six years first violinist of the Boston Symphony orchestra, this season makes his first appearance before an American audience, after extended study abroad. Mr. H. A. Higgins, a younger brother of Charles F. Higgins, has won the highest praise in concert music, and especially in solos, for the past three years with Gilmore's famous band. Mr. H. Corneluious, the well known clarionetist and late soloist of Gilmore's band, is one of the company, and is acknowledged to be without a rival on his favorite instrument. Miss Isabel Jamieson is not only a clever but conscientious performer on the piano. Miss Rawlson, the soprano, has a delightful voice and sings with excellent skill, and Miss Laura Bardin is an elocutionist who always pleases. Mr. Horace McKay, of Indianapolis, says of the concert given there February 5, 1890:

"The concert given by the Chas. F. Higgins' company at Plymouth church last night, was one of the best we have ever had, I speak for Mr. Chas. F. Higgins a brilliant future. Have never heard a company where every member did such good work, and evidenced such artistic skill. Will be glad to engage them in our course next year."

with SOZODONT when they become spongy or detached from the necks of the teeth. Let them bleed freely and so recover their tone and health. This SOZODONT is the best remedial agent for diseased gums and teeth. Try and learn.

When Charles Mackay died his right hand assumed the customary position for holding a pen, and so remained.

The breath of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked and frequently entirely destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purulent secretions into the throat, sometimes producing inveterate bronchitis, which, in its turn, has been the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results which have attended its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best and only cure.

of deaths that result from malaria is frightful. There is no disease that is so insidious in its attack. Its approach is stealthy and it permeates every fibre of the body, and remedies, which if applied at the outset, by delay lose their power. Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills have proven the most valuable malarial antidote ever discovered. W. M. Grafton, superintendent of the signal service of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, states that the Pennsylvania company is now using the interlocking safety signal at forty-three points on its lines west of Pittsburg, with the most satisfactory results, and at twelve or fourteen other railroad crossings a similar protection is to be put in operation.

"It is said that the Pennsylvania company has at last concluded to build a branch line of railroad from the Coshocton coal fields to Loudonville," says the Ashland Gazette, "there to connect with the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad. This is to merely act as a feeder for the above company's line, but we think that something more emportant will develop if the road is constructed.

An Important Invention.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—It is stated that M. Bellville, the inventor of the Bellville tublous boiler has succeeded in adapting his steam generator to the furnishing of a propellent for heavy ordnance guns in lieu of powder, air, or electricity. Mr. Bellville has found that his boiler will supply steam in sufficient quantities and at the required instant of time, to a degree that will give a 500-pound projectile over four times the velocity obtainable in the present pneumatic gun.

Knights of Pythias particularly turned their thoughts to their order, yesterday, because it is an important anniversary. The order was established in Indiana in the year 1869. There are now 20,000 members in the state, and 244 subordinate lodges. J. C. Suit, of Frankfort, is the present Grand Chancellor, and Frank Bowers, of Indianapolis, is the Grand Keeper of Records and Seal. It is said that the present year will show a greater increase in new lodges than any preceeding year. Indiana now ranks third among the states in membership, Pennsylvania and Ohio exceeding her. The state stands first in per centage of active lodges, increase of members and charitable expenditures. The Rathbone memorial will be held in this city next Sunday, and lodges from surrounding towns will participate.

In his last novel Mr. Howells makes a fight on the kind of civilization that must result from living in flats.

A FEW days ago as a class at the Cincinnati College of Medicine was about to dissect the body of a man who had died of drink a young man rushed into the room and threw himself on the subject, crying: "My father, my poor father!" This recalls the fact that some years ago President Harrison found in the Ohio Medical College the body of his father, John Scott Harrison, of North Bend, Ind. These horrible incidents emphasize the fact that there is a vast deal of unpleasant romance in actual life.

A HARTFORD, Van Buren County, Mich., man, who went West some years ago, got into trouble and the California penitentiary at the same time, and to save his family the disgrace caused somebody to write to Michigan that he had been shot and scalped by Indians. This would have made it all right if he had stayed dead, but a few days ago, while his widow was getting her trousseau ready to marry a decent man, the villain spoiled everything by getting out of prison and writing home to ask for his family.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

'TWAS HANGMAN'S DAY.

Two Murderers Hung at Philadelphia and a Third Suffers Death at Bellfonte, Pa.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—The condemned murderers, Jacob S. Schoop and Thomas J. Cole were executed in prison this morning in the presence of the properly accredited persons permitted to witness the last dread chapter in the history of the two terrible crimes.

At 9:30 o'clock, the officials and others appointed to witness the execution assembled at the prison. Shortly before 10 o'clock, Sheriff Krumbhaar left the assistant superintendent's room and walked with Mr. Richardson slowly down the corridor towards the scaffold, the others following in double ranks. As the head of the line reached Cole's cell they halted, the door creaked on its hinges, and the murderer emerged for his last walk, accompanied by his spiritual advisor, Father Marterson.

Schoop spent the night uncomplainingly; he slept calmly and peacefully for six hours, and when he awoke he listened earnestly to the words of comfort that came from the devout lips of Mr. Schroeder, his spiritual adviser. He read a religious book at intervals and ate frequently and with evident relish. He was very calm, but his apathy seemed to take the form of a trance, or as if he were under the influence of opium.

Cole spent most of his time in prayer. At 8 o'clock, this morning, he took the sacrament, and afterwards meditated with the priest who has so assidiously attended him through the dread ordeal. His brothers, Frank and James, came to the prison early in the morning, and an effecting farewell was the result. This trying moment was the turning point as to whether his weak condition would cause him to make a scene. He broke down and cried bitterly for a few minutes, and then quickly recovered his firmness, continuing calm and apparently cool until he died.

Cole walked slowly but firmly. His eyes were fixed on the ground and he appeared in a dazed condition. The Rev. Father held the Crucifix in front of the murderer's face, and now and then he mumbled inaudibly. A few steps further and another halt was made. This time the door creaked loudly and wierdly in the death-like stillness and Schoop issued forth. The wretched man paused for a second and looked first at the prison officials in the rear and then at his brother murderer. Rev. Otto Schroeder was at his elbow and the reverend gentlemen with Schoop took their positions and walked slowly after Cole and his spiritual advisor.

Again the procession was set in motion, the rear being brought up by the deputy sheriffs and the prison keepers. When the scaffold was reached the black caps were placed over the men's faces and the ropes adjusted. A moment later, at 10:04, the trap was sprung and both men dropped, having a fall of about six feet.

After hanging twenty minutes the bodies were out down. Prison Physician Scharp pronounced life extinct and the sheriff's jury viewed the bodies and the usual formal verdict was rendered. Cole's body was handed over to his brothers and Schoop's will be buried in the Potter's field, as his relatives and friends had all deserted him, and he was absolutely alone in the world.

The murder for which Thomas Cole suffered the death penalty was one of the most brutal in the annals of crime. On the morning of July 5, 1888, Walter McAllister, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was found murdered in bed at his boarding house. He had returned from his work and had just gone to bed, when his bed-fellow, Thomas Cole, entered the room and without any warning whatever, severed his head from his body with an ax. Cole then left the house and escaped, but was afterwards captured.

The only defense the prisoner made was that he had quarrelled with McAllister about the breaking of a hat and over a young lady from West Philadelphia; but the young lady could never be found. Cole was of an envious, vindictive disposition and, in fact, committed his awful crime on no pretext whatever.

The crime for which Jacob Schoop was executed to-day was the horrible butchery of Anton Schilling. The remains of Schilling, who was formerly Schoop's partner in a little grocery shop, were found by four boys in Fairmount park in the water pipes, on December 26th, 1888. After an investigation Schoop was arrested and finally confessed that he had murdered him to get possession of the little money he was supposed to have. They quarreled, when Schoop knocked Schilling down and then grabbing a knife, stabbed him until he was dead. He then cut the body up and placed it in sacks, which he afterwards carted to the park and placed it in the water pipes.

HOPKINS EXECUTED.

BELLEFONT, Pa., Feb. 20.—Hopkins rose about 6 o'clock and ate a hearty breakfast and spent several hours with his spiritual advisors in prayer. At 10 o'clock the walk to the gallows was begun. There the ministers again knelt in prayer. Hopkins bade farewell to his friends and said, "I leave this world without an enemy. Farewell all." After shaking hands with those on the scaffold and thanking the sheriff for his kind treatment, Hopkins stepped under the noose which was quickly adjusted and black cap was drawn and at 10:15 the trap was sprung. The rope broke and the man fell to the floor. He was picked up and carried to the scaffold, when the rope was again adjusted and the trap again sprung at 10:18. Hopkins was dead at 10:33 and the body was cut down shortly afterward.

The crime for which Wm. S. Hopkins paid the penalty to-day at Bellfonte, was the killing of his wife and her mother, Mrs. Wigaman, on Sunday, September 22, 1889.

Persons living in the vicinity of the Wigaman house, heard four shots fired in rapid succession, and soon after Hopkins emerged from the house and ran across the street to a livery stable. He held a revolver in his hand, and, on reaching the stable, fired two shots at his own head. The first shot missed entirely, and the second only lodged against the skull bone. Hopkins was taken in charge and confessed that he had killed his wife, Maggie, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Wigaman, and gave as a reason for doing so that he loved his wife to distraction and could not live without her, and as people were trying to part them he thought he would settle the difficulty by killing them and then himself.

MARQUETTE, Mich., Feb. 20.—John McDonald was convicted of the murder of Mollie Beveridge yesterday and at once sentenced for life. He displayed no emotion. His crime was the attempted killing of five persons near Matchwood, Ontonagon county, in December last. Mrs. Beveridge was killed, Mrs. Redpatch badly wounded, and Dunk Beveridge slightly hurt.

THE BIG FOUR GOBBLES

Up the Whitewater Railroad Which Has Heretofore Been Operated By the Muncie.

The Whitewater railroad, which has heretofore been operated by the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville railroad, whose main offices are in this city, has been gobbled up by the Big Four company, as will be seen by the following, which is taken from to-day's Cincinnati Enquirer:

"The Big Four people have taken another line into camp. This time it is the Whitewater road, which extends from Harrison, Ohio, to Hagerstown, Ind., a distance of sixty-five miles.

"It was learned last night that the Big Four had secured control of this piece of property, either by purchase of the majority of the capital stock or otherwise.

"President Ingalls, who arrived home yesterday after an inspection trip over the Chesapeake and Ohio, retired early last evening and could not be seen, consequently no particulars of the deal could be obtained. That the Big Four has secured the property is, however, a certainty.

"The Whitewater has been operated in connection with the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville, of which George W. Saul, formerly of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton, is general manager.

"The acquisition of the Whitewater gives the Big Four people a line to Connersville, Ind., a Cincinnati, Hamilton and Indianapolis town, and to other good territory, and, in connection with the Cincinnati, Fort Wayne and Louisville, a good line between Cincinnati and Muncie and Fort Wayne, Ind.

"Another thing is that Mackey, who has been buying a good many roads recently, has been dickering for the Whitewater with the idea of extending it to Cincinnati and using in connection with the line he is building from Richmond, Ind. Mackey is now, however, cut off so far as the Whitewater is concerned."

WASHINGTON.

The World's Fair Bills Being Discussed in Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The two bills providing for the holding of a world's fair were called up in the house to-day by special order. Mr. Candler, of Massachusetts, the chairman of the fair committee, announced that the committee had agreed to allot two hours to the representatives of each city represented for discussion, with two hours for the opposition to present its views, and one hour for a general presentation of the case.

The discussion was to begin to-day, with the general presentation, and the representatives of the four cities and the opposition were to have been allowed an hour each. Tomorrow, he explained, the opposition would begin the discussion, and the representatives of sites follow, each being allowed the remaining hour. Mr. Mills, of Texas, opposed this, contending that the opposition should be allowed half the time of the discussion.

Mr. Kilgore, of Texas, raised the question of consideration but was voted down and Mr. Candler finally succeeded in beginning his opening speech. He outlined the reasons and the necessities for holding a world's fair and was followed by Mr. Flower, who presented arguments in favor of making New York the place. He was followed by Messrs. Moore, of New Hampshire, and Covert, of New York, who also presented New York's claims.

Cummings, Tracy and Quinn all spoke in favor of the selection of New York as the site. The argument for Chicago was opened by Mr. Heit.

The senate laid aside the educational bill to-day to discuss Senator Chandler's resolution calling for information in regard to the Florida association. The debate was of an inflammable character. Mr. Call and Mr. Pasco making attacks upon the character of the dead man, Saunder, and Mr. Chandler attacking the Florida senators for "defaming the dead." After an extended debate the resolution was agreed to and the senate resumed consideration of the educational bill. Mr. Blair having the floor.

DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION.

It was plainly apparent soon after the house met to-day that there was a fixed intention on the part of a number of southern democrats to oppose the world's fair project because of the government appropriation of $15,600,000 provided for in the general bills.

After some routine business had been disposed of the speaker announced that the consideration of the World's Fair bill was the regular order and recognized Mr. Candler, of Mississippi, the chairman of the committee in charge of the matter, who made a statement concerning the allotment of time for discussion by the committee.

After considerable discussion Mr. Candler finally succeeded in beginning his speech on the general features of the project, outlining reasons why a fair should be held.

LA GRIPPE'S TERRORS.

Deaths Occur So Rapidly That the Supply of Coffins Has Been Exhausted

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 20.—Private letters received here from the City of Mexico state that the grip has been more widespread and persistent in its ravages there than anywhere else on the American continent. The writers are American residents of the Mexican capital, and have no motive to conceal the truth. A letter dated the 14th inst. and received here yesterday says:

The progress of the influenza here and its results have been truly terrific. The disease reached us in the middle of January and has grown steadily worse, until it is now at its height. The number of acute pneumonia is absolutely wonderful. It has been the rule rather than the exception, and no precaution seems to be able to prevail against it. This has been especially the case among the poorer classes, who live generally in houses which afford no protection against disease. There have absolutely died like sometimes twenty-five a day. Just now the supply of coffins has been exhausted and many bodies have been buried without.

VILLAGE DESTROYED.

Aquora, Iowa, Wiped Out by the Fire Fiend.

INDEPENDENCE, Iowa, Feb. 20.—The village of Aquora, ten miles northeast of here was almost entirely wiped out by fire Monday night. The postoffice, five stores, a blacksmith shop, a butcher shop, and numerous dwellings were consumed. The loss is not estimated. The insurance is light.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 20.—St. John's Roman Catholic church in Greenbush, across the river from this city, was destroyed by fire between 9:30 and 10:30 this morning. Loss, $35,000.

UTICA, N. Y., Feb. 20.—At the town of Black River, six miles from Watertown, early this morning, fire destroyed the hotel, two business blocks, and a number of dwellings. Loss estimated, $40,000; insurance, unknown.

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 20.—The produce commission store of S. G. Crooker, on Sixth street, was burned out this morning. Loss, $15,000; partly insured.

DEAD EDITORS.

Two Newspaper Men are Stricken With Death.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Feb. 20.—W. H. D. Bliss, one of the proprietors of the Sioux Falls Daily Press, died at his residence on Second avenue yesterday. The deceased was one of the most widely known men throughout this state, having been intimately connected with the affairs of the commonwealth and the territory.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 20.—Berry R. Sulgrove, the well known journalist of this city is dying of pneumonia. He has been continuously in the profession in this city since 1850, for many years being managing editor of the Journal, but for the past fifteen years upon the staff of the News.

LATER.—Mr. Sulgrore died at seven o'clock this morning.

Ex-Governor Foraker.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 20.—In a published interview, ex-Governor Foraker denies that he said, in his recent speech, that the call for information in regard to militia in 1887 had any reference to positive trouble with Canada.

Blood Arrested.

MIDDLEBORO, Mass., Feb. 20.—Dr. Blood, charged with being implicated in the murder of Hiram Sawtelle, was arrested here to day, and taken to Boston.

THE PARSON ATE THE APPLE.

Our thanks are hereby tendered to Miss Hattie Triplett for a big red apple. The parson ate the apple, and he stated that this is not the first instance in history where a woman gave a big red apple to a man, that very direful results ensued in the first instance, and he admonished us, therefore, to try harder than ever to become a better man, and, by jiminy, you can bet your best boots that we will try, though it is hard to find a better man than we are. To encourage us we will continue to hope that we may some day receive another big red apple from a fair and shapely hand.—Kent (Wash.) Advertiser.

SAFE BLOWERS!

Last night the safe in the offices of the Standard Oil company, west of the city, was blown and a small amount of money taken.

This is the second time within two months that a safe-blowing has been committed in these offices. The robbery of two months ago was not severe for such a corporation, the sum of money being only in the neighborhood of $100, but the safe had to be replaced, and Manager Gilbert recently bought one that was claimed to be "burglar-proof and fire-proof."

This large and handsome safe was ruined completely by the professionals, who performed their wicked work so well last night.

They went at it in a very systematic manner. First procuring tools from the Nickel Plate store house, a short distance away, they knocked off the combination dial. An aperture was made in which to pour the powder, and this done they applied the fuse.

The force of the explosion must have been terrific. Both doors were blown completely off, while huge seams appear here and there, making the safe a complete wreck.

A door between the office and the warehouse was shattered.

The amount of money taken was a little over $17. A $5 bill was not discovered. No papers were disturbed.

Sheriff Viberg visited the scene this morning.

The safe blowing was plainly the work of professionals. They left behind them a flask of powder and two copies of the Detroit Free Press, either of which would make a mighty poor clew to run down such criminals.

Manager Gilbert will buy another safe and will perhaps employ a watchman at the oil works.

THE BIG SHOOT.

George C. Beck, of Indianapolis, Wins the Championship of America.

Yesterday afternoon, at Lafayette, the bird shooting contest between Fred Erb, of that city, and George C. Beck, of Indianapolis, resulted in a victory for Beck, giving him the championship of America. Hon. Bruce Carr and a large number from Indianapolis, and also a number of enthusiasts of this city, attended the big sporting event.

The match began at 1:45 o'clock, sharp, and was attended by fully 400 people. The shoot was at fifty live pigeons each, and the score resulted: Erb, 45; Beck, 49, giving to the latter the American championship cup. Erb missed his first bird in his third shoot, his second in the twenty-ninth, third in the thirty-seventh, fourth in the fortieth and fifth in the forty-seventh. Beck shot straight until he reached his forty-seventh bird, and after that until the match was completed. There was some complaint that the birds were soft. The traps were set at a distance of thirty feet.

Mr. Beck's shooting was remarkable and if he keeps it up at the rate of yesterday afternoon he will probably hold the cup for the allotted two years and become its actual owner. In the shoot both Mr. Beck and Mr. Erb used a Parker twelve guage Hammerless gun weighing seven pounds and six ounces.

The prize for which the contest was waged, is the magnificent silver cup valued at $400 and offered by Dr. R. B. Roe, editor of the American Field, Chicago, for the champion wing shot of the United States. The winner must retain it two years against all comers, and accept a challenge not less than once every three months if tendered.

A DISPATCH from Berlin states that in the stomach of a shark, which was recently dissected in that city, were found a dolphin weighing 120 pounds, forty-three fish, a decomposed seal, a human arm, and four human legs. With what earnestness that shark must have been accustomed to put up the petition: May good digestion wait upon appetite. Reading between the lines of the dispatch, we seem to gather that it was dyspepsia that carried him off.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS.

An Entertainment Which is Soon to be Given in this City.

The auditorium of the elegant new Second Presbyterian church will be opened to the public on Tuesday evening, March 4, with a grand concert and organ recital which will, no doubt, be one of the best musical entertainments ever given in this city.

On that occasion the new $2,000 organ, manufactured by the Carl Barckhoff Organ company, of Salem, Ohio, for permanent use in the church, will have been placed, and will be operated by skillful hands.

The following brilliant list of musicians have been secured for the occasion:

Harrison Wild, organist, Chicago.
Chas. A. Knorr, tenor, Chicago.
Miss Helen Carter, contralto, Chicago.
Miss Clara Kenower, soprano, Huntington.
Miss Jennie Ninde, piano solo, city.
Mr. W. S. Bash, baritone solo, city.
Mrs. Chas. H. McCulloch and Mr. John Mohr, piano duet.

Mr. Wild, the organist on the occasion, is the organist of the Unity church at Chicago, and is said to be one of the finest concert players in the west.

Mr. Knorr also resides at Chicago. He is a magnificent tenor of acknowled ability, and will charm his hearers. He is constantly filling engagements in the leading cities, being at New Orleans this week.

The balance of the participants in the evening's program are so well known that it is unnecessary for us to speak of their musical abilities.

THE NEW STAMPS.

Postmaster Higgins Will Place Them on Sale Saturday.

As has been related by the dispatches in the public press the post office department has recently been engaged in the preparation of a new series of the ordinary postage stamps to replace the series at present in use.

The new stamps (except those of the four and five-cent denominations) are now ready for issue and the department have determined to place them on sale simultaneously at all the postoffices in the larger cities.

The time fixed for commencing the sale of the new stamps is Saturday morning, Feb. 22. The postmaster here received notice this morning that a supply would reach the Fort Wayne postoffice in time to open the sale simultaneously with all the other offices of the first-class, therefore the new stamps can be purchased at the stamp widow after 7:30 a. m. on Washington's birthday.

NEW BRIDGES.

The County Will Expend $30,000 for New Structures.

The county commissioners were in session yesterday and to-day.

They have considered considerable business, the most important of which was passing upon the erection of numerous new bridges throughout the county. The following have so far been decided upon:

Two in Monroe township, east and west of Monroeville.

Three in Springfield township, one of which will be a 140 foot span over the St. Joe river.

Two in Washington township, two in Aboite, one in Lafayette, two in Perry, one in Milan, one in Cedar Creek, one in Pleasant.

The bridges will all be of iron, the foundations to be iron or stone. Bids will be advertised for in March.

The expense of building these bridges will be about $30,000.

WHERE IS HEBERT?

He Leaves Town Suddenly and His Doors are Closed.

Ed Hebert, who has been conducting a saloon on Calhoun street near the depot, has left town and the saloon is closed. He carried the keys with him and Mr. Centlivre, the brewer, who owns the place, was unable to effect an entrance to the place to-day.

It is said that Hebert left for Chicago last night. His wife, who was Miss Leichner, does not explain her husband's strange conduct, even if she knows.

His barkeeper is also unable to account for the man's action, unless it is because he is in debt.

The neighboring storekeepers say that Hebert has been in the habit of borrowing money of them at different times.

NEW SOUTH WALES and Queensland have erected 887 miles of rabbit-proof fences.

BETTER THAN GOLD.

RESTORED HER HEALTH.

For 25 years I suffered from boils, erysipelas and other blood affections, taking during that time great quantities of different medicines without giving me any perceptible relief. Friends induced me to try S. S. S. It improved me from the start, and after taking several bottles, restored my health as far as I could hope for at my age, which is now seventy-five years.

The Ghastly Record

of deaths that result from malaria is frightful. There is no disease that is so insidious in its attack. Its approach is stealthy and it permeates every fibre of the body, and remedies, which if applied at the outset, by delay lose their power. Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills have proven the most valuable malarial antidote ever discovered. A noted clergyman of New York pronounces them "the greatest blessing of the nineteenth century," and says: "In these days of defective plumbing and sewer gas, no family should be without them." They are pleasant to take, being covered with a vanilla sugar coating.

The Columbus shops of the Pennsylvania lines will build only nineteen of the twenty-four class "S" locomotives assigned. Five of the locomotives will be built at the Fort Wayne shops, in order to permit increased repair work at the Columbus shops.

On the 1st of next month the Indiana Car Service association will cover in its operations the following additional junction points: Fort Wayne, Goshen, Elkhart, Columbia City, Plymouth, Warsaw, Huntington, Rochester, Decatur and Bluffton, and four additional roads will then share in the expenses of the association.

W. M. Grafton, superintendent of the signal service of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, states that the Pennsylvania company is now using the interlocking safety signal at forty-three points on its lines west of Pittsburg, with the most satisfactory results, and at twelve or fourteen other railroad crossings a similar protection is to be put in operation.

"It is said that the Pennsylvania company has at last concluded to build a branch line of railroad from the Coshocton coal fields to Loudonville," says the Ashland Gazette, "there to connect with the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad. This is to merely act as a feeder for the above company's line, but we think that something more emportant will develop if the road is constructed.

A SLICK CAPTURE.

An Embezzler Caught by the Police at Detroit While Drunk.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 20.—Martin Throckman, who was a member of the board having charge of the building of a new infirmary in Cincinnati about four years ago, and who fled to Canada while under bail on a charge of embezzlement, was captured by the police here yesterday. He has been keeping a grocery in Windsor, but while intoxicated yesterday he came over to Detroit and was arrested by detectives who have been watching for him.

VOLUME III, NO. 17.

A Relic of Long Before the War Preserved Carefully.

The Columbia City Post says: "Our old friend, C. C. Miner, showed us a newspaper curiosity Monday morning that he obtained from his brother Byrum before his death. It was a copy of volume III, No. 17, of the FORT WAYNE SENTINEL, published December 10th, 1836, over half a century ago. It was a five column folio, and the reading and news matter was set in long primer. In appearance and make up it presents quite a contrast to the FORT WAYNE SENTINEL of to day."

An Important Invention.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—It is stated that M. Bellville, the inventor of the Bellville tublous boiler has succeeded in adapting his steam generator to the furnishing of a propellent for heavy ordnance guns in lieu of powder, air, or electricity. Mr. Bellville has found that his boiler will supply steam in sufficient quantities and at the required instant of time, to a degree that will give a 500-pound projectile over four times the velocity obtainable in the present pneumatic gun.

Knights of Pythias particularly turned their thoughts to their order, yesterday, because it is an important anniversary. The order was established in Indiana in the year 1869. There are now 20,000 members in the state, and 244 subordinate lodges. J. C. Suit, of Frankfort, is the present Grand Chancellor, and Frank Bowers, of Indianapolis, is the Grand Keeper of Records and Seal. It is said that the present year will show a greater increase in new lodges than any preceeding year. Indiana now ranks third among the states in membership, Pennsylvania and Ohio exceeding her. The state stands first in per centage of active lodges, increase of members and charitable expenditures. The Rathbone memorial will be held in this city next Sunday, and lodges from surrounding towns will participate.

In his last novel Mr. Howells makes a fight on the kind of civilization that must result from living in flats.

A FEW days ago as a class at the Cincinnati College of Medicine was about to dissect the body of a man who had died of drink a young man rushed into the room and threw himself on the subject, crying: "My father, my poor father!" This recalls the fact that some years ago President Harrison found in the Ohio Medical College the body of his father, John Scott Harrison, of North Bend, Ind. These horrible incidents emphasize the fact that there is a vast deal of unpleasant romance in actual life.

A HARTFORD, Van Buren County, Mich., man, who went West some years ago, got into trouble and the California penitentiary at the same time, and to save his family the disgrace caused somebody to write to Michigan that he had been shot and scalped by Indians. This would have made it all right if he had stayed dead, but a few days ago, while his widow was getting her trousseau ready to marry a decent man, the villain spoiled everything by getting out of prison and writing home to ask for his family.

'TWAS HANGMAN'S DAY.

Two Murderers Hung at Philadelphia and a Third Suffers Death at Bellfonte, Pa.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—The condemned murderers, Jacob S. Schoop and Thomas J. Cole were executed in prison this morning in the presence of the properly accredited persons permitted to witness the last dread chapter in the history of the two terrible crimes.

At 9:30 o'clock, the officials and others appointed to witness the execution assembled at the prison. Shortly before 10 o'clock, Sheriff Kramblisar left the assistant superintendent's room and walked with Mr. Richardson slowly down the corridor towards the scaffold, the others following in double ranks. As the head of the line reached Cole's cell they halted, the door creaked on its hinges, and the murderer emerged for his last walk, accompanied by his spiritual advisor, Father Martenson.

Schoop spent the night uncomplainingly; he slept calmly and peacefully for six hours, and when he awoke he listened earnestly to the words of comfort that came from the devout lips of Mr. Schroeder, his spiritual adviser. He read a religious book at intervals and ate frequently and with evident relish. He was very calm, but his apathy seemed to take the form of a trance, or as if he were under the influence of opium.

Cole spent most of his time in prayer. At 8 o'clock, this morning, he took the sacrament, and afterwards meditated with the priest who has so assiduously attended him through the dread ordeal. His brothers, Frank and James, came to the prison early in the morning, and an effecting farewell was the result. This trying moment was the turning point as to whether his weak condition would cause him to make a scene. He broke down and cried bitterly for a few minutes, and then quickly recovered his firmness, continuing calm and apparently cool until he died.

Cole walked slowly but firmly. His eyes were fixed on the ground and he appeared in a dazed condition. The Rev. Father held the Crucifix in front of the murderer's face, and now and then he mumbled inaudibly. A few steps further and another halt was made. This time the door creaked loudly and wierdly in the death-like stillness and Schoop issued forth. The wretched man paused for a second and looked first at the prison officials in the rear and then at his brother murderer. Rev. Otto Schroeder was at his elbow and the reverend gentlemen with Schoop took their positions and walked slowly after Cole and his spiritual advisor.

Again the procession was set in motion, the rear being brought up by the deputy sheriffs and the prison keepers. When the scaffold was reached the black caps were placed over the men's faces and the ropes adjusted. A moment later, at 10:01, the trap was sprung and both men dropped, having a fall of about six feet.

After hanging twenty minutes the bodies were cut down. Prison Physician Scharp pronounced life extinct and the sheriff's jury viewed the bodies and the usual formal verdict was rendered. Cole's body was handed over to his brothers and Schoop's will be buried in the Potter's field, as his relatives and friends had all deserted him, and he was absolutely alone in the world.

The murder for which Thomas Cole suffered the death penalty was one of the most brutal in the annals of crime. On the morning of July 5, 1888, Walter McAllister, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was found murdered in bed at his boarding house. He had returned from his work and had just gone to bed, when his bed-fellow, Thomas Cole, entered the room and without any warning whatever, severed his head from his body with an ax. Cole then left the house and escaped, but was afterwards captured.

The only defense the prisoner made was that he had quarrelled with McAllister about the breaking of a hat and over a young lady from West Philadelphia; but the young lady could never be found. Cole was of an envious, vindictive disposition and, in fact, committed his awful crime on no pretext whatever.

The crime for which Jacob Schoop was executed to-day was the horrible butchery of Anton Schilling. The remains of Schilling, who was formerly Schoop's partner in a little grocery shop, were found by four boys in Fairmount park in the water pipes, on December 26th, 1888. After an investigation Schoop was arrested and finally confessed that he had murdered him to get possession of the little money he was supposed to have. They quarreled, when Schoop knocked Schilling down and then grabbing a knife, stabbed him until he was dead. He then cut the body up and placed it in sacks, which he afterwards carted to the park and placed it in the water pipes.

HOPKINS EXECUTED.

BELLFONTE, Pa., Feb. 20.—Hopkins rose about 6 o'clock and ate a hearty breakfast and spent several hours with his spiritual advisors in prayer. At 10 o'clock the walk to the gallows was begun. There the ministers again knelt in prayer. Hopkins bade farewell to his friends and said, "I leave this world without an enemy. Farewell all." After shaking hands with those on the scaffold and thanking the sheriff for his kind treatment, Hopkins stepped under the noose which was quickly adjusted and black cap was drawn and at 10:15 the trap was sprung. The rope broke and the man fell to the floor. He was picked up and carried to the scaffold, when the rope was again adjusted and the trap again sprung at 10:18. Hopkins was dead at 10:33 and the body was cut down shortly afterward.

The crime for which Wm. S. Hopkins paid the penalty to-day at Bellfonte, was the killing of his wife and her mother, Mrs. Wigaman, on Sunday, September 22, 1889.

Persons living in the vicinity of the Wigaman house, heard four shots fired in rapid succession, and soon after Hopkins emerged from the house and ran across the street to a livery stable. He held a revolver in his hand, and, on reaching the stable, fired two shots at his own head. The first shot missed entirely, and the second only lodged against the skull bone. Hopkins was taken in charge and confessed that he had killed his wife, Maggie, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Wigaman, and gave as a reason for doing so that he loved his wife to distraction and could not live without her, and as people were trying to part them, he thought he would settle the difficulty by killing them and then himself.

MARQUETTE, Mich., Feb. 20.—John McDonald was convicted of the murder of Mollie Beveridge yesterday and at once sentenced for life. He displayed no emotion. His crime was the attempted killing of five persons near Matchwood, Ontonagon county, in December last. Mrs. Beveridge was killed, Mrs. Redpath badly wounded, and Dunk Beveridge slightly hurt.

THE COLD WAVE.

Predicted by One Washington Weather Prophet.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—For Indiana: Colder, fair weather; preceded by light snow in extreme northwestern portions, northwesterly winds.

The high barometric disturbance yesterday in Colorado, developed yesterday and last night a decided storm central over Indiana, and is this morning central over northern New York. A decided cold wave, with high barometric pressure, has followed in the Mississippi valley and Northern Carolina mountain slope, southward to the gulf coast.

KELLY RELEASED.

He Does Not Prove to be the Man Wanted.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—The may J. B. Kelly, arrested in St. Louis on suspicion of having been connected with the Cronin murder, was released from custody to-day. Messrs. Hatfield and Throckmorton could not identify him as the man "J. B. Simonds."

Can Do Business.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 20.—The attorney general rendered his decision in the case of the recommendations of Bank Examiner Kenyon as to whether or not the American Building and Loan association should be permitted to continue doing business. He decides that it can. This establishes the association as being clearly on its feet, and there are no grounds for the claims of extravagance.

Forty-Three Dead.

PARIS, Feb. 20.—Up to the present time forty-three corpses have been removed from the colliery at Decize, in which occurred the explosion on the night of Tuesday. Eight miners, who are seriously hurt, have also been taken out.

No Sugar Trust.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 20. W. W. Frazier, Jr., of the Franklin Sugar Refining company, said yesterday that there was not one word of truth in the report of their having joined the sugar trust.

Bank of England.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The bank of England's rate of discount has been advanced to 5 per cent.

THE BIG FOUR GOBBLES

Up the Whitewater Railroad Which Has Heretofore Been Operated By the Muncie.

The Whitewater railroad, which has heretofore been operated by the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville railroad, whose main offices are in this city, has been gobbled up by the Big Four company, as will be seen by the following, which is taken from to-day's Cincinnati Enquirer:

"The Big Four people have taken another line into camp. This time it is the Whitewater road, which extends from Harrison, Ohio, to Hagerstown, Ind., a distance of sixty-five miles.

"It was learned last night that the Big Four had secured control of this piece of property, either by purchase of the majority of the capital stock or otherwise.

"President Ingalls, who arrived home yesterday after an inspection trip over the Chesapeake and Ohio, retired early last evening and could not be seen, consequently no particulars of the deal could be obtained. That the Big Four has secured the property is, however, a certainty.

"The Whitewater has been operated in connection with the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville, of which George W. Saul, formerly of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton, is general manager.

"The acquisition of the Whitewater gives the Big Four people a line to Connersville, Ind., a Cincinnati, Hamilton and Indianapolis town, and to other good territory, and, in connection with the Cincinnati, Fort Wayne and Louisville, a good line between Cincinnati and Muncie and Fort Wayne, Ind.

"Another thing is that Mackey, who has been buying a good many roads recently, has been dickering for the Whitewater with the idea of extending it to Cincinnati and using in connection with the line he is building from Richmond, Ind. Mackey is now, however, cut off so far as the Whitewater is concerned."

WASHINGTON.

The World's Fair Bills Being Discussed in Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The two bills providing for the holding of a world's fair were called up in the house to-day by special order. Mr. Candler, of Massachusetts, the chairman of the fair committee, announced that the committee had agreed to allot two hours to the representatives of each city represented for discussion, with two hours for the opposition to present its views, and one hour for a general presentation of the case.

The discussion was to begin to-day, with the general presentation, and the representatives of the four cities and the opposition were to have been allowed an hour each. Tomorrow, he explained, the opposition would begin the discussion, and the representatives of sites follow, each being allowed the remaining hour. Mr. Mills, of Texas, opposed this, contending that the opposition should be allowed half the time of the discussion.

Mr. Kilgore, of Texas, raised the question of consideration but was voted down and Mr. Candler finally succeeded in beginning his opening speech. He outlined the reasons and the necessities for holding a world's fair and was followed by Mr. Flower, who presented arguments in favor of making New York the place. He was followed by Messrs. Moore, of New Hampshire, and Covert, of New York, who also presented New York's claims.

Cummings, Tracy and Quinn all spoke in favor of the selection of New York as the site. The argument for Chicago was opened by Mr. Heit.

The senate laid aside the educational bill to-day to discuss Senator Chandler's resolution calling for information in regard to the Florida association. The debate was of an inflammable character. Mr. Call and Mr. Pasco making attacks upon the character of the dead man, Saunder, and Mr. Chandler attacking the Florida senators for "defaming the dead." After an extended debate the resolution was agreed to and the senate resumed consideration of the educational bill. Mr. Blair having the floor.

DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION.

It was plainly apparent soon after the house met to day that there was a fixed intention on the part of a number of southern democrats to oppose the world's fair project because of the government appropriation of $75,000,000 provided for in the general bills.

After some routine business had been disposed of the speaker announced that the consideration of the World's Fair bill was the regular order and recognized Mr. Candler, of Mississippi, the chairman of the committee in charge of the matter, who made a statement concerning the allotment of time for discussion by the committee.

After considerable discussion Mr. Candler finally succeeded in beginning his speech on the general features of the project, outlining reasons why a fair should be held.

LA GRIPPE'S TERRORS.

Deaths Occur So Rapidly That the Supply of Coffins Has Been Exhausted.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 20.—Private letters received here from the City of Mexico state that the grip has been more widespread and persistent in its ravages there than anywhere else on the American continent. The writers are American residents of the Mexican capital, and have no motive to conceal the truth. A letter dated the 14th inst. and received here yesterday says:

The progress of the influenza here and its results have been truly terrific. The disease reached us in the middle of January and has grown steadily worse, until it is now at its height. The number of acute pneumonia is absolutely wonderful. It has been the rule rather than the exception, and no precaution seems to be able to prevail against it. This has been especially the case among the poorer classes, who live generally in houses which afford no protection against disease. There have absolutely died like sometimes twenty-five a day. Just now the supply of coffins has been exhausted and many bodies have been buried without.

VILLAGE DESTROYED.

Aquora, Iowa, Wiped Out by the Fire Fiend.

INDEPENDENCE, Iowa, Feb. 20.—The village of Aquora, ten miles northeast of here was almost entirely wiped out by fire Monday night. The postoffice, five stores, a blacksmith shop, a butcher shop, and numerous dwellings were consumed. The loss is not estimated. The insurance is light.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 20.—St. John's Roman Catholic church in Greenbush, across the river from this city, was destroyed by fire between 9:30 and 10:30 this morning. Loss, $35,000.

UTICA, N. Y., Feb. 20.—At the town of Black River, six miles from Watertown, early this morning, fire destroyed the hotel, two business blocks, and a number of dwellings. Loss estimated, $40,000; insurance, unknown.

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 20.—The produce commission store of S. G. Crocker, on Sixth street, was burned out this morning. Loss, $15,000; partly insured.

DEAD EDITORS.

Two Newspaper Men are Stricken With Death.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Feb. 20.—W. H. D. Bliss, one of the proprietors of the Sioux Falls Daily Press, died at his residence on Second avenue yesterday. The deceased was one of the most widely known men throughout this state, having been intimately connected with the affairs of the commonwealth and the territory.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 20.—Berry R. Sulgrove, the well known journalist of this city is dying of pneumonia. He has been continuously in the profession in this city since 1850, for many years being managing editor of the Journal, but for the past fifteen years upon the staff of the News.

LATER.—Mr. Sulgrove died at seven o'clock this morning.

Ex-Governor Foraker.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 20.—In a published interview, ex-Governor Foraker denies that he said, in his recent speech, that the call for information in regard to militia in 1887 had any reference to positive trouble with Canada.

Blood Arrested.

MIDDLEBORO, Mass., Feb. 20.—Dr. Blood, charged with being implicated in the murder of Hiram Sawtelle, was arrested here to day, and taken to Boston.

THE PARSON ATE THE APPLE.

Our thanks are hereby tendered to Miss Hattie Triplett for a big red apple. The parson ate the apple, and he stated that this is not the first instance in history where a woman gave a big red apple to a man, that very direful results ensued in the first instance, and he admonished us, therefore, to try harder than ever to become a better man, and, by jiminy, you can bet your last bob that we will try. Though it is hard to find a better man than we are. To encourage us we will continue to hope that we may some day receive another big red apple from a fair and shapely hand.—Kent (Ohio) Advertiser.

SAFE BLOWERS!

Last night the safe in the offices of the Standard Oil company, west of the city, was blown and a small amount of money taken.

This is the second time within two months that a safe-blowing has been committed in these offices. The robbery of two months ago was not severe for such a corporation, the sum of money being only in the neighborhood of $100, but the safe had to be replaced, and Manager Gilbert recently bought one that was claimed to be "burglar-proof and fire-proof."

This large and handsome safe was ruined completely by the professionals, who performed their wicked work so well last night.

They went at it in a very systematic manner. First procuring tools from the Nickel Plate store house, a short distance away, they knocked off the combination dial. An aperture was made in which to pour the powder, and this done they applied the fuse.

The force of the explosion must have been terrific. Both doors were blown completely off, while huge seams appear here and there, making the safe a complete wreck.

A door between the office and the warehouse was shattered.

The amount of money taken was a little over $17. A $5 bill was not discovered. No papers were disturbed.

Sheriff Viborg visited the scene this morning.

The safe blowing was plainly the work of professionals. They left behind them a flask of powder and two copies of the Detroit Free Press, either of which would make a mighty poor clew to run down such criminals.

Manager Gilbert will buy another safe and will perhaps employ a watchman at the oil works.

THE BIG SHOOT.

George C. Beck, of Indianapolis, Wins the Championship of America.

Yesterday afternoon, at Lafayette, the bird shooting contest between Fred Erb, of that city, and George C. Beck, of Indianapolis, resulted in a victory for Beck, giving him the championship of America. Hon. Bruce Carr and a large number from Indianapolis, and also a number of enthusiasts of this city, attended the big sporting event.

The match began at 1:15 o'clock, sharp, and was attended by fully 400 people. The shoot was at fifty live pigeons each, and the score resulted: Erb, 45; Beck, 49, giving to the latter the American championship cup. Erb missed his first bird in his third shoot, his second in the twenty-ninth, third in the thirty-seventh, fourth in the fortieth and fifth in the forty-seventh. Beck shot straight until he reached his forty-seventh bird, and after that until the match was completed. There was some complaint that the birds were soft. The traps were set at a distance of thirty feet.

Mr. Beck's shooting was remarkable and if he keeps it up at the rate of yesterday afternoon he will probably hold the cup for the allotted two years and become its actual owner. In the shoot both Mr. Beck and Mr. Erb used a Parker twelve guage Hammerless gun weighing seven pounds and six ounces.

The prize for which the contest was waged, is the magnificent silver cup valued at $400 and offered by Dr. R. B. Roe, editor of the American Field, Chicago, for the champion wing shot of the United States. The winner must retain it two years against all comers, and accept a challenge not less than once every three months it tendered.

A DISPATCH from Berlin states that in the stomach of a shark, which was recently dissected in that city, were found a dolphin weighing 120 pounds, forty-three fish, a decomposed seal, a human arm, and four human legs. With what ease one must that shark must have been accustomed to put up the jobbism: May good digestion wait upon appetite. Reading between the lines of the dispatch, we seem to gather that it was dyspepsia that carried him off.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS.

An Entertainment Which Is Soon to be Given in this City.

The auditorium of the elegant new Second Presbyterian church will be opened to the public on Tuesday evening, March 4, with a grand concert and organ recital which will, no doubt, be one of the best musical entertainments ever given in this city.

On that occasion the new $2,000 organ, manufactured by the Carl Barckhoff Organ company, of Salem, Ohio, for permanent use in the church, will have been placed, and will be operated by skillful hands.

The following brilliant list of musicians have been secured for the occasion:

Harrison Wild, organist, Chicago.
Chas. A. Knorr, tenor, Chicago.
Miss Helen Carter, contralto, Chicago.
Miss Clara Kenower, soprano, Huntington,
Miss Jennie Ninde, piano solo, city.
Mr. W. S. Bush, baritone solo, city.
Mrs. Chas. H. McCulloch and Mr. John Mohr, piano duet.

Mr. Wild, the organist on the occasion, is the organist of the Unity church at Chicago, and is said to be one of the finest concert players in the west.

Mr. Knorr also resides at Chicago. He is a magnificent tenor of acknowledged ability, and will charm his hearers. He is constantly filling engagements in the leading cities, being at New Orleans this week.

The balance of the participants in the evening's program are so well known that it is unnecessary for us to speak of their musical abilities.

THE NEW STAMPS.

Postmaster Biggins Will Place Them on Sale Saturday.

As has been related by the dispatches in the public press the post office department has recently been engaged in the preparation of a new series of the ordinary postage stamps to replace the series at present in use.

The new stamps (except those of the four and five-cent denominations) are now ready for issue and the department have determined to place them on sale simultaneously at all the postoffices in the larger cities.

The time fixed for commencing the sale of the new stamps is Saturday morning, Feb. 22. The postmaster here received notice this morning that a supply would reach the Fort Wayne postoffice in time to open the sale simultaneously with all the other offices of the first-class, therefore the new stamps can be purchased at the stamp widow after 7:30 a. m. on Washington's birthday.

NEW BRIDGES.

The County Will Expend $80,000 for New Structures.

The county commissioners were in session yesterday and to-day.

They have considered considerable business, the most important of which was passing upon the erection of numerous new bridges throughout the county. The following have so far been decided upon:

Two in Monroe township, east and west of Monroeville.

Three in Springfield township, one of which will be a 140 foot span over the St. Joe river.

Two in Washington township, two in Aboite, one in Lafayette, two in Perry, one in Milan, one in Cedar Creek, one in Pleasant.

The bridges will all be of iron, the foundations to be iron or stone. Bids will be advertised for in March.

The expense of building these bridges will be about $80,000.

WHERE IS HEBERT?

He Leaves Town Suddenly and His Doors are Closed.

Ed Hebert, who has been conducting a saloon on Calhoun street near the depot, has left town and the saloon is closed. He carried the keys with him and Mr. Centlivre, the brewer, who owns the place, was unable to effect an entrance to the place to-day.

It is said that Hebert left for Chicago last night. His wife, who was Miss Leichner, does not explain her husband's strange conduct, even if she knows.

His bookkeeper is also unable to account for the man's action, unless it is because he is in debt.

The neighboring storekeepers say that Hebert has been in the habit of borrowing money of them at different times.

New York and Queensland have each a society of rabbit-proof fences.

THURSDAY, FEB. 20, 1890.

THE Lenten period is here.

WINTER has but one more month to live.

THE "beautiful" was bidding piteously for a welcome this morning.

THE pavement question is still being discussed by property holders.

PRESIDENT HARRISON is "swinging around the circle" in Pennsylvania this week.

THE tariff reformers are actively at work and the cause is gaining new converts each day.

MISS BISLAND, the little woman who went around the world at six hours' notice, has been made literary editor of the Cosmopolitan Magazine.

A PECULIAR and fatal cattle disease is reported raging in the vicinity of Columbus, Ind., the animals becoming uncontrollable, and finally dying in convulsions.

EIGHT varieties of leprosy are recognized in China, and the disease is regarded as contagious, infectious and hereditary, but is said to disappear in four generations.

THE appropriation for pensions to be recommended by the committee, which will report this week, calls for $99,200,000 for the fiscal year—in round numbers $160,000,000.

ISAAC SAWTELLE, who is now under arrest, and undoubtedly guilty of the horrible murder of his brother, was pardoned out of a New Hampshire penitentiary less than two months ago after serving fifteen years of a thirty years' sentence.

THE eight hour law, enacted by the last democratic Indiana state legislature has been pronounced constitutional by Attorney General Michener. The law, he says, in no way limits the contracting powers of the citizens of the state, and, besides, the power to enact such a law is embraced in the authority to exercise power to secure the convenience, comfort and prosperity of the public.

QUITE an excitement was occasioned Monday evening at Crawfordsville by the continued ringing of the bell of Wabash College, which was taken as an alarm of fire. The fire-bell sounded and the firemen rushed to the college, only to find that their services were not needed, and that all the commotion was caused by the members of the freshmen and sophomore classes having a fight in the belfry.

THE supreme court of Indiana has just rendered the following decision: "When a suit is to foreclose a mortgage for purchase money not executed by the wife of the mortgagor she occupies the same relation to the mortgage, in so far as the mortgagee or those claiming under him are concerned, as she does in case of a mortgage securing a debt other than purchase money which she had signed, and the lien is not barred until twenty years have elapsed from the time the cause of action has occurred."

THE LENTEN PERIOD.

Lent began yesterday. In a city like this the term means very much and very little. The religious devotee has watched its approach with interest; thousands will pass through the shadow of its forty days and, like a stranger riding through a cross-roads village, never know it.

And even the majority of those who accept the voluntary asceticism, renouncing pleasure and fashion, do not know from whence the custom came. It is not generally known that Lent was once but a fast of forty hours—though the fact is disputed—and was intended to commemorate the intervening time between Christ's passion and the resurrection. Then, it is stated, the time was extended by slow degrees to forty days, and was taken to commemorate the forty days that Christ fasted in the desert.

Tertullian, in the third century, speaks of the Catholics as observing only the two days on which the bridegroom was taken from them. The learned are divided on the point, but certainly there is a doubt. Be it as it may, however, it is certain that different churches had power to appoint days of fasting as they pleased, and that they gradually prefixed extra days to the original fast until the Lenten period is now of greater length than was at one time commemorated in the Roman church.

During these forty days marriages are not consummated by devout catholics and episcopalians, and the consequence is that after Lent the county clerk usually notes an unusually lively demand for marriage licenses. Festive events generally are discouraged, and among the members of the churches named there is a tendency to plainer clothing among the ladies, little theater going and no dancing. Holy week, the last week of Lent, is one of peculiar solemnity, and the three last days are of almost continuous devotion.

A recent writer says "The chief suggestion of the Lenten season to those who do not keep it, is the prominence it gives to the disciplinary element of religious life. That is its idea; it stands for repression and self-denial. Lent is an institution of society as well as of the church. It is not possible for the church to overcome the world simply through its activity and benevolence. Luxury will gain upon charity. The sphere of self-indulgence will widen beyond that of service."

As regards abstinence from food there seems to have always been as much variety as now. Pilkington, who, in spite of his name, came to be bishop of Durham in 1563, uses language respecting the diversity of foods, as follows: "Fastings were more varied than I know. Some used St Riman's, some the Golden Fridays, some every Wednesday, some half of Lent, some whole, some with fish only, others as they list. What reason is it that they which fasted Our Lady's fast, some fasting to bread and water, ended it in three days' space, or in eating fish had never."

FOOD ADULTERATION.

The senate committee on agriculture has reported a substitute for the bill introduced by Senator Faulkner, "for the establishment of a pure food division in the department of agriculture, to provide for the inspection of live stock about to be slaughtered at slaughter-houses, canning, salting, pickling and rendering establishments, the carcasses or products of which are intended for human consumption in any state or territory other than where slaughtered, or for exportation to foreign countries; to prohibit the introduction of adulterated or misbranded foods or drugs into any state, or territory, or District of Columbia from any state, or territory, or foreign country."

The bill as amended provides that the secretary of agriculture shall organize in the department a division to be known as the Food division, and shall appoint a chief at a salary of $3,000 a year, to procure and analyze samples of food and drugs sold in any state other than where it is manufactured. All manufactures of goods intended for shipment from one state to another shall make application for a license to the secretary of agriculture, certifying that the articles are not deleterious. The bill strikes out the second, third and fourth sections of the original bill relative to the slaughter of animals, and, with the exceptions noted, is the same as the old bill. It was recommitted to the committee on agriculture.

BECAUSE HE WAS A JEW.

Louis Rubenstien, the champion figure skater of the world, who resides at Montreal, Canada, and who, as noted in THE SENTINEL the other day, has relatives residing in this city, will not receive the first prize after all, although he won it fairly and defeated all other competitors in the world's championship contest at St. Petersburg last week. A telegram received yesterday from Russia says "Rubenstein, though defeating all the others, will not be allowed first money."

This result is due to Rubenstein being a Jew. In a letter to his family at Montreal before the contest came off, he expressed his fears that his religion would interfere with his gaining the prize. Baron Wolffe of the St. Petersburg amateur club, who is of Jewish origin, interested himself in Rubenstein's behalf to prevent many petty annoyances devised to keep Rubenstein uncomfortable and which were too small to bring to the ambassador's notice, but the baron was told to attend to his own business and treat Rubenstein no better than the other competitors. The matter has been brought to the attention of the cabinet at Ottawa, Ont., and Sir John MeDonald says the affair will be looked into.

To the Tariff Reformers of Indiana.

The executive committee of the Indiana Tariff Reform League, have completed the arrangements for the annual meeting on March 4 and 5. A mass meeting will be held in Masonic hall, Indianapolis, on the evening of Tuesday, March 4. This meeting will be addressed by Hon. Boyd Winchester, of Louisville; Hon. Thos. G. Shearman, of New York, and Hon. C. S. Darrow, of Chicago. Hon. J. Proctor Knott, of Kentucky, and Franklin McVeagh, of Chicago, will also probably be present.

On Wednesday, March 5, the business meeting of the league will be held. The committee is anxious to have every county in the state represented at that meeting.

Replies received to a circular letter sent out by the committee, indicate a growing interest in this movement, and a large and enthusiastic meeting. Reduced rates have been granted from all points in Indiana, to persons attending the convention. In purchasing tickets to Indianapolis, be careful to get the certificate from the agent at the starting point, which guarantees the return fare. Without this certificate, full fare will be charged both ways. Any further information will be furnished upon application to the corresponding secretary.

A MYSTERIOUS MAN.

The Man Who Dogged Jennie Cramer's Footsteps May Go To the Penitentiary.

A few nights ago a man dogged the footsteps of Miss Jennie Cramer on the streets and followed her to her home. He was jailed under the genuine or assumed name of Joseph Black and is serving a light sentence on the charge of intoxication.

Miss Cramer has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. August Bauls, at 93 West Main street, and here it was that Black followed her. He demanded admittance to the house, which was refused him, but he accomplished an entrance by breaking in a window.

It was then that Oliver Kennelly, who had been summoned during the excitement, appeared and placed the intruder under arrest.

Black, when arraigned before the mayor, said that he thought Miss Cramer was his wife, Emma, for whom he has been searching in this city. He said he did not remember anything about breaking into the house. Miss Cramer says she never met the man in her life before and his acts altogether too queerly to suit her. She has avowed her intention of conferring with Prosecutor Robinson in the matter.

Black is a young man of 22 years and of a careless disposition. In an interview he proved to be non-communicative; but from what a SENTINEL reporter learned he came from Altoona, Pa., and has worked in this city for some little time. He was for a period employed in the Wabash yards.

He stated that he was not aware of the act he was arrested for. He claimed to be too drunk to know anything.

He also claimed to be hunting for his wife, who he knew had been working on Baker street. Later he understood she went to the Ervin house on Harrison street.

Chief of Police Wilkinson made some inquiry at the Ervin house and elsewhere. He found that at the hotel in question the woman had not been employed to the knowledge of any of those at present about the place. He later located the woman at a home in Bloomingdale where she is acting as domestic.

She related a pitiful story. It is not her desire to meet her husband. She disclaims him on the ground of his worthlessness and is making her own living. She does not want the man to know of her whereabouts.

The most sensational part of the whole story is that it has been asserted that Black is wanted in Altoona for burglary. Chief Wilkinson has telegraphed to that place to seek the truth.

A SPLENDID ATTRACTION.

The Charles F. Higgins Concert Company at the Y. M. C. A. Hall Next Monday.

It is not often that an opportunity is presented to the people of our city to hear a concert of such high character as that to be given here on the evening of the 24th instant. The Boston Symphony orchestra, for some mysterious reason, canceled their engagement, but the Charles F. Higgins Concert company, of New York, will be here sure. Mr. Charles F. Higgins, for six years first violinist of the Boston Symphony orchestra, this season makes his first appearance before an American audience, after extended study abroad. Mr. H. A. Higgins, a younger brother of Charles F. Higgins, has won the highest praise in concert music, and especially in solos, for the past three years with Gilmore's famous band. Mr. H. Cornelious, the well known clarionetist and late soloist of Gilmore's band, is one of the company, and is acknowledged to be without a rival on his favorite instrument. Miss Isabel Jamieson is not only a clever but conscientious performer on the piano. Miss Rawlson, the soprano, has a delightful voice and sings with excellent skill, and Miss Laura Bardin is an elocutionist who always pleases. Mr. Horace McKay, of Indianapolis, says of the concert given there February 5, 1890:

"The concert given by the Chas. F. Higgins' company at Plymouth church last night, was one of the best we have ever had, I speak for Mr. Chas. F. Higgins a brilliant future. Have never heard a company where every member did such good work, and evidenced such artistic skill. Will be glad to engage them in our course next year."

with SOZODONT when they become spongy or detached from the necks of the teeth. Let them bleed freely and so recover their tone and health. This SOZODONT is the best remedial agent for diseased gums and teeth. Try and learn.

When Charles Mackay died his right hand assumed the customary position for holding a pen, and so remained.

The breath of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked and frequently entirely destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purulent secretions into the throat, sometimes producing inveterate bronchitis, which, in its turn, has been the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results which have attended its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best and only cure.

of deaths that result from malaria is frightful. There is no disease that has insidious in its attack. Its approach is stealthy and it permeates every fibre of the body, and remedies, which if applied at the outset, by delay lose their power. Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills have proven the most valuable material antidote ever discovered. A noted clergyman of New York pronounces them "the greatest blessing of the nineteenth century," and says: "in these days of defective plumbing and sewer gas, no family should be without them." They are pleasant to take, being covered with a vanilla sugar coating.

This is to certify that I have been troubled with Neuralgia in the Face and Head for over four (4) years. At times the pains were excruciating and I thought I must die. I had spent dollar after dollar and physicians could give me no relief. Upon the advice of a friend I bought a bottle of Sterletcu's Neuralgia Drops, and after using it according to directions, I can say I feel better than I have for many years. I shall continue to use it until I am thoroughly well. I feel very grateful to Mr. Sterletcu for making such a medicine. I will talk it's praise in curing my case to any lady who may call on me.

The Toledo Bee says: "A large number of trainmen from this city attended the annual party at Fort Wayne last night, given by the trainmen of that city. A royal good time was reported."

The Columbus shops of the Pennsylvania lines will build only nineteen of the twenty-four class "S" locomotives assigned. Five of the locomotives will be built at the Fort Wayne shops, in order to permit increased repair work at the Columbus shops.

On the 1st of next month the Indiana Car Service association will cover in its operations the following additional junction points: Fort Wayne, Goshen, Elkhart, Columbia City, Plymouth, Warsaw, Huntington, Rochester, Decatur and Bluffton, and four additional roads will then share in the expenses of the association.

W. M. Grafton, superintendent of the signal service of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, states that the Pennsylvania company is now using the interlocking safety signal at forty-three points on its lines west of Pittsburg, with the most satisfactory results, and at twelve or fourteen other railroad crossings a similar protection is to be put in operation.

"It is said that the Pennsylvania company has at last concluded to build a branch line of railroad from the Coshocton coal fields to Loudonville," says the Ashland Gazette, "there to connect with the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad. This is to merely act as a feeder for the above company's line, but we think that something more important will develop if the road is constructed.

A SLICK CAPTURE.

An Embezzler Caught by the Police at Detroit While Drunk.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 20.—Martin Throckman, who was a member of the board having charge of the building of a new infirmary in Cincinnati about four years ago, and who fled to Canada while under bail on a charge of embezzlement, was captured by the police here yesterday. He has been keeping a grocery in Windsor, but while intoxicated yesterday he came over to Detroit and was arrested by detectives who have been watching for him.

VOLUME III. NO. 17.

A Relic of Long Before the War Preserved Carefully.

The Columbia City Post says: "Our old friend, C. C. Miner, showed us a newspaper curiosity Monday morning that he obtained from his brother Byron before his death. It was a copy of volume III, No. 17, of the FORT WAYNE SENTINEL, published December 10th, 1836, over half a century ago. It was a five column folio, and the reading and news matter was set in long primer. In appearance and make up it presents quite a contrast to the FORT WAYNE SENTINEL of to day."

An Important Invention.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—It is stated that M. Bellville, the inventor of the Bellville tubulous boiler has succeeded in adapting his steam generator to the furnishing of a propellent for heavy ordnance guns in lieu of powder, air, or electricity. Mr. Bellville has found that his boiler will supply steam in sufficient quantities and at the required instant of time, to a degree that will give a 500-pound projectile over four times the velocity obtainable in the present pneumatic gun.

Knights of Pythias particularly turned their thoughts to their order, yesterday, because it is an important anniversary. The order was established in Indiana in the year 1869. There are now 20,000 members in the state, and 244 subordinate lodges. J. C. Suit, of Frankfort, is the present Grand Chancellor, and Frank Bowers, of Indianapolis, is the Grand Keeper of Records and Seal. It is said that the present year will show a greater increase in new lodges than any preceeding year. Indiana now ranks third among the states in membership, Pennsylvania and Ohio exceeding her. The state stands first in per centage of active lodges, increase of members and charitable expenditures. The Ruthbone memorial will be held in this city next Sunday, and lodges from surrounding towns will participate.

In his last novel Mr. Howells makes a fight on the kind of civilization that must result from living in flats.

A FEW days ago as a class at the Cincinnati College of Medicine was about to dissect the body of a man who had died of drink a young man rushed into the room and threw himself on the subject, crying: "My father, my poor father!" This recalls the fact that some years ago President Harrison found in the Ohio Medical College the body of his father, John Scott Harrison, of North Bend, Ind. These horrible incidents emphasize the fact that there is a vast deal of unpleasant romance in actual life.

A HARTFORD, Van Buren County, Mich., man, who went West some years ago, got into trouble and the California penitentiary at the same time, and to save his family the disgrace caused somebody to write to Michigan that he had been shot and scalped by Indians. This would have made it all right if he had stayed dead, but a few days ago, while his widow was getting her trousseau ready to marry a decent man, the villain spoiled everything by getting out of prison and writing home to ask for his family.

Gent's shoes, consisting of Calf, French Calf, Dongola, Kangaroo and Cordovan, running in all styles, sizes and widths, costing from $2.00 to $6.00; we'll sell them, according to the grade, for from 67c. to $2.00 a pair.

There are doubtless a great many people that are somewhat skeptical, thinking, that which we say is not true. We therefore invite all that doubts our assertion, to pay us a visit, and if we can't save you 67c on every dollar, why don't buy of us. Now if you or your family are in need of foot wear, you'll do your money triple justice by paying this sale a visit on either FRIDAY, SATURDAY or MONDAY.
